WHITES VS. CHINESE.

Was the Principal Issue at Saturday Night's Meeting, Although There were Others.

A Large, Enthusiastic, but Rude Disorderly Meeting, and a Clashing of Interests.

The Chinese Must Go, so far as the Westminster Electric Street Railway is concerned.

The meeting Saturday night at the city hall, called by Mayor Brown, at the request of Mr. Thomas Cunningham, M.
P., to discuss the question of in-serting an anti-Chinese clause in the New Westminster Electric Street Railway bill, was large, enthusiastic and noisy.
The Mayor being absent through illness, Mr. D. McGregor moved that Mr. Armstrong be elected chair, which was carried unanimously, and Mr. McGregor was elected secretary. The chairman then called the body into order and the meeting and invited general discussion on the question.

Mr. E. S. Sinclair was the first to take the floor. He was delighted to hear the Mayor being absent through illness, and he was glad to see the meeting called to order. He then called for a meeting to give an opportunity to the Chinese to express their views on the question of the anti-Chinese clause. He then called for a meeting to give an opportunity to the Chinese to express their views on the question of the anti-Chinese clause.
