Chinese Situation

The Feeling in England Continues Adverse to the Russian Scheme.

Guarantee Will Be Demanded Before British Troops Withdraw From Pekin.

Military Men Are Greatly Impressed by the Japanese Soldiers.

New York, Sept. 2.—Cabling from London, the correspondent of the Tribune says of the aspect of the Chinese question:

"Actual news from China is again very meagre this morning and there is not much fresh information to be gleaned with regard to the proposed withdrawal of the allied troops from Pekin.

"The feeling in this country continues adverse to the Russian scheme. The Observer says that if the plan of a general withdrawal of troops from the Chinese capital is carried out, it does not envy the fate of the unfortunate Europeans who are compelled to remain there. The disinterestedness of Russia is doubted, and it is argued that the Chinese would clearly interpret a "retiring policy" as a confession of utter weakness, and the story would be circulated throughout the whole Chinese empire that the hated foreigners had been driven out, in dread of the Emperor's wrath.

"Military men here continue to be profoundly impressed by the reports which arrive of the conduct of the Japanese in the recent operations. The general testimony of competent witnesses who saw them at Tien Tsin is that they were the best of all the contingents which formed the allied force there, and telegraphic accounts of their proceedings on the march to Pekin confirm the opinion as to their admirable qualities. They marched as well as the Russians, they were as doggedly persistent as the British and American infantry. They had the dash of the Indian cavalry and nothing to learn from the Germans in matters of organization and equipment. The Americans and most of the European troops suffered severely from the fatigues of the rapid march in terrible weather, which told far less on the hardy Russian peasants and least of all on the nimble little Japanese, whose scouting work throughout was also described as excellent.

"Lord Wolseley and Sir Evelyn Wood, the adjutant-general of the British army, and Sir John Ardagh, chief of the intelligence department, have been paying government gives startling proof of its Japanese proclivities in the recent Boxer campaign. No doubt their opinion would not greatly differ from that expressed by a distinguished retired officer, once famous in Indian warfare, who said:

"The world has got to reckon with the smaller nationalities. Japan has a larger population than France, as much disciplined intelligence as Germany and at least as great a natural aptitude for military science as her people as any European nation. In science and knowledge her general staff is second to none, and courage, patriotism and contempt for death, the rank and file of her army would certainly compare favorably with the conscript of the continent. Russia is everywhere her formidable foe by land in numbers, but in every other respect I look upon the Mikado's potential military force as superior to that the Czar's.

"While the powers are debating the best steps to discover whether the government of China is in existence, the government gives startling proof of its unabated vitality by suddenly endeavoring to assert its authority in the Yang Tse valley. The announcement is forthcoming that an imperial commissioner has been appointed to proceed to Nankin and investigate the charges brought against Viceroy Liu Kun Yi is very significant. Liu is one of the most moderate and progressive of the Chinese governors and has done much to promote education in his province, besides providing it with an excellent foreign school of army. He has long been disliked by the Manchu faction for his reforming tendencies, and several of his projects were defeated by the Young La Yamen. He is now denounced by his censors for being too favorable to foreigners, and an imperial commissioner has been appointed to consider whether he should be dismissed and punished.

"The fact that the court should not scruple to attack an influential ex-viceroy at the present crisis shows that it does not regard itself as powerless. Even if it seem that Liu Kun Yi is able to resist the edict, and does not submit to the foreign consuls he might be sacrificed by the reactionaries. It is, however, believed that the British consul at Shanghai has given Liu Kun Yi strong assurances of support.

"Meanwhile Chang Chih Tung, the other principal reformer in Yan Tse, is being patronized by the Germans, who have offered to guarantee him a loan. It is remarked in Shanghai that the German loan will be established at that moment if it is removed from Pekin—perhaps another indication that Germany as well as France, declines to consider Central China as an exclusive British sphere of influence.

"Concerning the Russian proposal, I can only repeat that the more it is looked at the less it is admired. The comments that continue to be made on it continue to be uncomplimentary. Some few critics admit that it may be simple due to that almost fanatical love of peace which animates the Czar and which induced him to assemble the peace conference at The Hague last year. Others say bluntly that it is an example of what is here called the 'confidence trick.' Russia will induce the allies to retire from Northern China to demonstrate their good faith, knowing perfectly well all the while that she can herself come in again when a convenient opportunity arises. Meanwhile, as soon as the present difficulty is patched up, her influence with the government of which she will have become the patron and protector, will be predominant. She will have retired, as Gortchakoff advised after the Crimean war, to collect herself for the next advance and prepare to accumulate a great army in Siberia and swallow Manchuria and perhaps Pe Chili at leisure. Nevertheless, there is also a growing feeling that the Russian proposal, whatever may be the motives which inspired it, may, after all, have to be accepted as the best alternative in the difficult position in which the powers are now placed. None of them like the prospect of remaining at Pekin indefinitely, and the idea of beginning a campaign in pursuit of a disappearing Chinese government is even less attractive.

"The probability is that the British reply, while intimating a willingness to retire from Pekin at an early date, will point out that it is undesirable for the allies to withdraw their troops until some guarantee can be given for the continuance of a satisfactory arrangement with the Chinese imperial authorities."

A Terrible Railway Wreck

Trains on the Philadelphia and Reading Railway Come In Collision.

Thirteen Persons Killed and Thirty Injured In the Smash Up.

Philadelphia, Sept. 2.—Thirteen persons were killed and over 30 injured is the appalling record of a rear-end collision between an excursion train and a milk train on the Bethlehem branch of the Philadelphia & Reading railway this morning at Hatfield, Penn., 27 miles north of this city.

The killed are: Miss Annie Sherry, aged 21 years, South Bethlehem; Ira Ehret, aged 20 years, South Bethlehem; Robert Miller, 21, South Bethlehem; Richard Bachman, 40, South Bethlehem; William Ehret, 22; South Bethlehem; Charles Mogonigle, Allentown; Thomas Day, Allentown; Miss Mamie Kaelin, 14, Telford; Godfrey Kaelin (father of Mamie); William Bluckburn, Ambler; Harold Lamlis, Hatfield; Harold Ackerman, Philadelphia.

Injured: John Davis, Philadelphia, engineer of excursion train, skull fractured, critical; Albert J. Wagner, Philadelphia, fireman excursion train, contusion of chest and legs, serious; William C. Rossland, South Bethlehem, baggagemaster of milk train, head lacerated, serious; Michael J. Tighe, Allentown, legs crushed and bruised, serious; John Herman, South Bethlehem, foot crushed; John McHugh, South Bethlehem, leg and thigh injured and hurt internally, but not serious; Abraham Tronsue, jr., South Bethlehem, deep scalp wounds, contusion of back and internally injured, serious; Mrs. William Burk, South Bethlehem, injured internally; Miss Gertrude Burk, South Bethlehem, injured internally, both legs broken; P. J. McMahon, South Bethlehem, injured internally; Mrs. Morrison, arm broken and contusion of body; Irvin Newhardt, head badly cut; Mary Newhardt, South Bethlehem, crushed ribs; Miss Carrie Bachman, daughter of Richard Bachman (who was killed), chest crushed, serious; Miss Schaffer, Allentown, legs broken; Mary Koch, fractured legs; Lewis Knecht, Bethlehem, contusion of legs; George Landis, Bethlehem, scalp wounds; Mrs. Alfred Schmerler, Bethlehem, badly lacerated; Annie Miller, South Bethlehem, hips crushed; William Wilmroy, South Bethlehem, badly lacerated; Mrs. Wilmer, legs crushed.

The wrecked train consisted of [illegible] coaches and was the first section of a large excursion made up of people of Bethlehem, Allentown and surrounding towns to Atlantic City. This section carried only those persons who lived in Bethlehem and Allentown, and left the Union depot, Bethlehem, at 6:20 a. m., 25 minutes behind the milk train. The latter train consisted of two milk cars and two passenger coaches, and had stopped at every station on the road from Bethlehem en route to Philadelphia.

At 6:50 a.m. milk train drew up at Hatfield station and started off at less than two minutes a special excursion train, running at the rate of 35 miles an hour, crashed into the rear of the milk train. The locomotive plowed through the two passenger coaches and crushed them as if they were egg shells. The milk car, immediately in front of these, was also badly wrecked, and four persons on the passenger car of the milk train were almost instantly killed. Fortunately there were very few persons on this train.

The excursion train was a picture of indescribable horror. The locomotive was a mass of twisted iron and steel, and firmly held the bodies of its engineer and fireman beneath its great weight. Behind the engine six of the twelve cars were a mass of wreckage. The first car was broken in twain, and the other five cars were thrown on their sides and completely demolished.

Nine persons were killed in the first two cars and the others in these coaches were badly maimed. As soon as the crash came a terrible cry arose from the smashed cars, and those who had not been injured quickly crawled or jumped from the cars and went to the assistance of the injured.

In South Africa

Review of the Progress of the Campaign During the Week.

Roberts Gave the Enemy No Chance to Secure an Advantage.

No Immediate Hopes of Any British Troops Being Sent Home.

New York, Sept. 2.—The London cable letter to this morning's Tribune has the following in relation to South Africa:

"The South African campaign has made distinct progress this week and there is a general belief that the end is at hand. Some surprise was felt at the comparative weakness of Botha's resistance in the strong position he had selected and fortified. It had been suggested that the experience of Magersfontein might be repeated and the British would dash themselves in vain against the tiers of enfiladed trenches, but Roberts, unlike Methuen on the Modder, had plenty of mounted men, and unlike Buller on the Tugela, he was able to attack the enemy from the least favorable side. With the whole of the Natal army available on the south, he had French's cavalry and two infantry divisions from Pretoria available against the northern and eastern flanks of the Boer forces. Consequently, Botha had to retire as soon as a simultaneous movement from both quarters was developed, under pain of being surrounded and having to share the fate of Cronje and Prinsloo. So far he has avoided the catastrophe; he saved his guns and transport wagons and lost no prisoners to speak of.

"It remains to be seen whether his army as an organized force will continue to exist. Most of the burghers are said to have retired eastward towards the Barberton mountains. Here, if they endeavor to make a stand, they should be hemmed in by the British army, which has at least 40,000 troops available, and compelled to surrender; but the probability is that the majority of them will disperse to their own homes, perhaps with the hope of again joining the commandoes if they see a fair chance.

"A minority of the fighting burghers with Kruger, himself and Louis Botha, Lucas Meyer and other officers, have gone to Lydenburg, and in this wild and broken country resistance may be prolonged for some time longer. Meanwhile Boer bands are in the field in several other portions of the disputed territory. There has been fighting between Theron's commando and the British to the south of Johannesburg, but the censorship has not permitted the particulars to be made known. Delarey and Grobelaar are also at large in the western Transvaal, and Dewet has now worked his way back to the centre of the Orange River colony. His present following is small, but his name and reputation may rather embarrass him. Finally, at Ladybrand, between Bloemfontein and the Basutoland frontier, a burgher force has appeared on the hills and threatens the British garrison of the town.

"All this seems to show that, even if the regular operations of the campaign be soon brought to a close, no considerable number of Lord Roberts' army can be allowed to leave South Africa. It was hoped by the ministry that troops might be streaming home before the beginning of the general election in October. This is not now likely to be the case. The fact may, after all, throw back the appeal to the country to a later date. Reinforcements are still going out to Roberts, who has lost over 40,000 men by death, wounds and sickness, and has several thousand more in hospital at the present time. It is significant that the Imperial authorities have asked the Canadian government to allow a portion of the colonial contingent, whose period of service expires this month, to remain in South Africa some time longer."

VANCOUVER MEN DROWNED.

Comox Cuts Skiff in Two—A. Lund and A. Vaughan Lost.

Vancouver, Sept. 2.—A very sad drowning accident occurred a few miles up the Coast from Vancouver last night. Four young men who had been camping near Powell lake—Aubray Lund, A. Vaughan, J. Shortt and J. Pride—rowed into midstream to meet and board the steamer Comox on her return home. The steamer, in the darkness, ran the boat down, striking it in the middle and cutting it in two. When Pride found himself in the water he shouted out: "Boys, are you all right" Pride says he heard three of them shout back, "Yes." He then shouted: "I'll swim for the shore." Pride says certainly two others started out with him, but when he reached shore there was but himself and Shortt. Lund and Vaughan must have been drawn under by the steamer, or after swimming a short distance have become exhausted and sunk.

Aubray Lund was a clerk in the Merchants' Bank of Halifax, and Vaughan was in the employ of Messrs. Oppenheimer Bros. Oppenheimer Bros., chartered a tug to-night and sent it in search of the bodies.

Little News From China

Prince Tuan Hiding Near Pekin Awaiting Decision of the Powers.

Expedition Shortly Starts for Pao Ting Fu Says Taku Report.

London, Sept. 6.—According to a despatch from Shanghai, it is reported there that Prince Tuan (the father of the heir-apparent and reported leader of the extreme anti-foreign movement at the palace) is hiding within easy reach of Pekin, awaiting the result of the present conference of the powers.

The rumors emanating from Shanghai that the expedition, which it is said will shortly start for Pao Ting Fu, about 40 miles southwest of Tien Tsin, will go thence to Tao Ting Yuan Fu, about 200 miles southwest of Tien Tsin, capital of the province of Shan Si, where the Dowager Empress, the Emperor and the court are supposed to be dissolved as fantastic. The allied forces are in no way equipped for such a campaign.

The Boxers are still active in Shan Tung province.

One official despatch from Tsin Tau reports that 500 Boxers attacked a patrol of German marines near Lan Tsun on September 5, with the result that 40 Boxers were killed and the Germans suffered as loss.

Taku, Sept. 4.—An expedition will shortly start for Pao Ting Fu, clearing the villages en route, which were the scene of the first Boxer outrages in the province of Chi Li.

The Russians intend to repair the railway through to Pekin.

It is reliably asserted that native soldiers, acting under the orders of Li Hung Chang, are exterminating the Boxers in the provinces of Hu Nan and Chi Li.

Four prominent Boxers were executed in Tien Tsin on August 30. The French shot two and the Japanese beheaded the others. The executions have had a good moral effect.

WESTMINSTER'S GRIEVANCE.

Lacrosse Team Say They Have Been Shabbily Used in Toronto.

Toronto, Sept. 6.—A. E. McNaughton, manager of the New Westminster lacrosse team, has addressed a letter to the Telegram, in which he says: "The Westminster team feel very keenly the treatment they are receiving at the hands of the Toronto Lacrosse Club. It is not what they should receive, in view of the courteous treatment accorded to them on their Western tour last fall, the expense of which in all its details was borne by Westminster people. They have arranged a match between the Capitals and Dufferins on their own grounds for the same date as our game with the Tecumsehs next Saturday, at the time knowing well that our fixture was made. However, we have been shabbily used before, and are not a bit the worse for it. We can get along without any assistance from the Toronto Lacrosse Club (we have not received much, financial or otherwise), and we will fill all our engagements to date, and draw a crowd to see our game on Saturday, as it will be the last appearance here of the team that has made the biggest record ever made by any team, viz., travelling 4,000 miles and playing six matches in twelve days, each one on grounds of the home club, the last two with the team in a much crippled condition from rough usage. During the trip we won 5 and drew 1 match, and scored 39 goals and had 13 scored against us. I might also say that I challenged the Toronto Lacrosse Club, through Captain Knowles, President Rutter and Secretary MacDonald, to play off the draw, either on Thursday or Friday of this week, but they absolutely refused, evidently being well satisfied to have a draw."

Winnipeg, Sept. 6.—Arrangements have been practically completed for the trip of the Winnipeg lacrosse team to the Coast. President Warren received word from New Westminster ratifying the invitation, and accepting the offer of the Winnipegs to go after a capital of the championship. It is expected that the Winnipeg team will leave here on Thursday, the 27th.

CENTRE STAR
IRON MASK

Settle Their Famous and Expensive Law Suit Out of Court.

Rossland, Sept. 6.—The suit of the Centre Star v. the Iron Mask, which has been pending before the courts for the past two years, and which was tried at considerable cost for experts, etc., before Mr. Justice Walkem, of the Supreme court, about a year since, was settled to-night. The parties to the suit are most reticent as to the terms of settlement. The suit was caused by the claim on the part of the Centre Star that one of the veins on the Iron Mask ran into the Centre Star. In other words, it was a claim for extra lateral rights under an old mining law. The vein denied by the Iron Mask people, and experts from all over the continent were summoned to testify in the case. The case was adjourned so that certain work could be done to determine on which of the two mines the vein really did have its apex. The litigation so far has been very expensive. The settlement was arrived at late this evening.

SUBMARINE BOAT.

British Navy Has One Reported to be Highly Efficient.

The British Admiralty is experimenting with Woolwich and other naval stations for a newly-designed submarine boat. Prior experiments with the boat have proved satisfactory. She submerges and travels well. She is so constructed as to allow of her passing under an enemy's heaviest ironclads. Then, a submarine mine charged with 500 pounds of gun cotton can be attached to a bottle vessel and the boat will have time to get out of danger before the mine is exploded. The boat is fitted with two tubes for discharging torpedoes, both above and below the water. She is armed with quick-firing and machine guns. It is claimed that she is able to successfully overcome the largest ironclad afloat.

The Band For England

Fifth Regiment Musicians Expected to Commence Their Tour Next Month.

Mr. Finn Tells of Satisfactory Progress Made in Perfecting Arrangements.

The recent announcement in the Colonist that there was a strong possibility of the Fifth Regiment band journeying to England to meet the victorious home-coming Canadian contingent struck much enthusiasm, and the project is widely endorsed. The idea is a most captivating one from every standpoint, and it will certainly be no mean indication of the energy and enterprise characteristic of this city if Victoria succeeds in sending the first Canadian band to the Old Country.

With the object of ascertaining how the proposed venture was progressing, Bandmaster Finn was interviewed yesterday. In answer to the query whether the band was really contemplating the trip, Mr. Finn said that arrangements were progressing most satisfactorily, and that he entertained every expectation of having the trip under way about the beginning of next month.

"Wherever I have broached the topic," said Mr. Finn, "there has been nothing but most cordial support. The business people are specially keen on the success of the trip as a means of advertising the city. Much successfully advertising the city. Much has been spent on various advertising schemes, but it would be difficult to suggest a better method of advertising than the distribution at our events of pamphlets descriptive of the scenic and residential advantages of the city, and the resources of the province. Of course, I am only touching on the fringe of this feature respecting advertising, and we will most enthusiastically welcome any suggestion along this or our tour we can direct attention to the capital city of British Columbia."

"When Mr. Finn was interrogated as to the difficulties of getting together a first-class band at such short notice, he gave striking indeed with which he has been met. His plans by announcing that he had nearly all the musicians secured necessary for the trip. "I do not claim," said Mr. Finn, "that we will have a better band than we by the English bands, for we can hardly be expected that we would be such a fine band with three days' rest. I confidently hope, though, to have a band of forty musicians that in general proficiency and finish will be superior to any Canadian organization, and fully equal to any English band of equal number. When the personnel of the band is taken into consideration, it will hardly be realized that I am speaking in conservative terms. I am contemplating the engagement of ten players, made up as follows: Four B flat cornets, 4 French horns, 2 trombones, 2 euphoniums, 1 double B bass, 1 C bass, 1 string bass, 1 double B bass, 1 E flat clarionet, 13 B flat clarionets, 2 bassoons, 3 saxophones, 2 drums and tympani."

"The reed section," he noticed, "will be particularly strong. There will be a quartette of three B flat clarionets, a trombone and a cornet in a band of forty. I am giving special attention to my reeds, and in the opinion of leading American musicians, with whom I have had correspondence, this feature of the band should be practically one of the strongest features of quality and strength. Some-band, by virtue of its novel organization, has a remarkable list of engagements, the Continental cities of France and Germany, the fluttering terms of the Riviera, and the Mediterranean to the many beautiful and varied coast effects, mainly made available by the presence of so many reed instruments. Among our reeds will be some celebrated players as Kest, McLeod, Valerga, Strong and Enslen. Kest is a famous English player, having performed principally in this country with Gilmore. McLeod is a Canadian, being a native of Halifax, and has been prominent in the leading naval bands of the States. Valerga came to America with Arbuckle's band of the Boston Symphony Orchestra. Thus you will see, with the above artists added to our present reeds, that something should be expected from this quarter. Enslen, who is a pupil of Boles, performed under Greizz and Sousa's band, and Liberati, English cornet, will be engaged to play oboe. He made his first appearance at the Columbian exposition with Verna Prator military band and orchestra, and afterwards played under Schiel, the great conductor at the San Francisco Midwinter Fair. Mr. Finn further explained that all members of the band would be required to enlist for three years, and that the band would be attached to some regiment in England in order that the players could at all times be subject to discipline. Mr. Finn also stated that he could procure Lew Jones as first bassoon player. Jones is a Welshman, and has played under Victor Herbert Damrosch, Sousa and toured Europe with Gilmore. Rosebrook will be the solo cornetist and he is known everywhere for his performances with Herbert, Gressacq and Reeves, successor to Gilmore. Mr. Klotz, who has been located here during the past week on the trombone, will be the upholstering soloist. He has played under Bennett, Canonaes, and with Schiel in two symphony seasons. Thomas will be engaged for first horn player. Interviews with leading citizens yesterday indicate that the proposed tour meets with enthusiastic approval. Irrespective of the appreciativeness of sending a band from Canada to meet our boys on their return journey in London, it will be a source of special pride that the most westerly city of the Dominion should be the first to send a band across the ocean.

favor of remaining at Pekin will be concurred in by Italy and Austria, as these countries act with Germany on political questions of a general nature. Moreover, definite word has been received which foreshadows Austria's position in favor of remaining in Pekin. As to the purpose of Great Britain, there is an absolute lack of information, though there is little doubt that Great Britain will be in favor of remaining at Pekin.

THE STORY OF SOUTH AFRICA
PUBLISHED BY US.

The only complete book on South Africa and the South African War. We understand that books are being canvassed for that have not. We have a complete book and only a small number of pages about the war. Our book contains over 600 pages and is illustrated throughout. Send a survey of the forces which combine to produce this war, and 52 pages to tell the history of the war. A few Canadian Press Pictures and a few War Pictures found in a book does not in our opinion make a history.

Canvass for "The Story of South Africa," which Contains between 800 and 900 pages, giving the full and complete history of the war and also the causes leading up to it.

It has over 150 engravings, mostly full page, and is one of items of Canadian Troops, Officers and Men. The only work containing portraits of Lords Roberts and Kitchener in its colors; the only work giving a correct list of Canadian officers killed and wounded; 17x21 inches; all others under 900. Webster, Roberts and Kitchener and admiral Beresford.

The only work that has an up-to-date index map of South Africa.

Be sure the work you handle is published by us and written by four authors, viz.: John Clark Bidwell, LL. D., Edward Bellis, M. A., John A. Cooper, Ed. Canadian Magazine and J. H. Allen, of Toronto, South Africa. Circulars and terms free.

POLAR EXPLORATION.

Mr. Zeigler's Secretary Says Everything Is Favorable For Dash to the Pole.

(Associated Press.)

New York, Sept. 24.—Mr. William S. Champ, private secretary of Mr. Zeigler, who reached New York yesterday on the steamship Cymric, brings an account of the first stage of the Baldwin-Zeigler Polar expedition.

Mr. Champ accompanied Mr. Baldwin in charge of the supply ship as far as Franz Josef land to assist in establishing the headquarters of the expedition there. Everything was more favorable for the dash to the Pole than Mr. Baldwin had dared to expect. Mr. Champ said the Americs had difficulty with ice before reaching that point, and was delayed ten days. Fog and heavy weather were also encountered. Mr. Baldwin has taken a large number of dogs—420 of them—for the dash. Some of them are expected to serve as food for the men as well as the other dogs.

Mr. Champ intimated that there might be some trouble with Walter Wellman, who is conducting a Polar expedition over practically the same route.

BIG RAILWAY FIGHT NOW SEEMS PROBABLE

Pennsylvania Company Demands Surrender of Wabash System and the Wheeling and Lake Erie.

(Associated Press.)

Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 24.—The inquirer to-day says: "A. J. Cassatt, president of the Pennsylvania Railroad Co., has demanded of George Gould the surrender of the Wabash system and the Wheeling & Lake Erie at a price which will net a profit to the Goulds, under threat of cutting off the whole of the Western Union Telegraph lines from the entire Pennsylvania railroad system, as well as from the Vanderbilt lines when agreed to the deal.

"This is a threat that means a war greater than any that has ever taken place in this country, and is comparable only with that of the Beech Creek & South Pennsylvania in 1885, which resulted in the abandonment of those lines except as built, which were swallowed up by the Vanderbilt and the Pennsylvania.

"The penalty means that the Western Union will suffer the greatest blow in its history, and will lose many of its profitable lines, which will be turned over to its great rival the Postal Telegraph Company.

"This ultimatum means more than any other railway deal in the history of this country. It is believed that the Goulds will accede to the demand, and that the Pennsylvania will not only add nearly 3,000 subordinate miles to its trackage, but will also get rid of a rival for the Chicago and Pittsburg business, the largest factor in the whole matter, resulting from a contract made by Mr. Carnegie with the Wheeling & Lake Erie before the United States Steel Corporation was formed and to carry out which the Goulds were trying to build a line into Pittsburg."

BETTING ON CUP RACES.

The Defender is a Favorite at New York.

(Associated Press.)

New York, Sept. 24.—Betting on the cup races, while it has not reached any magnitude as yet, is nevertheless giving evidence of interest and confidence on the part of those who believe Columbia is the better boat. Shamrock money at 5 to 4 with Columbia at the big end is around in plenty, though the actual amounts so far recorded as having been wagered are small. One firm is offering $10,000 to $9,000 that the Columbia will hold the cup, and up to late night hours of Shamrock's people had appeared in take up the offer. A number of minor bets at the same odds were placed on the stock exchange yesterday.

ROYAL VISITORS START FOR WEST

DUKE AND DUCHESS LEFT OTTAWA TO-DAY

Enthusiastic Crowds Lined the Streets Leading to Railway Depot—Dine at Winnipeg on Thursday.

(Associated Press.)

Ottawa, Sept. 24.—The Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York resumed their Western trip to-day, leaving Ottawa for Winnipeg on their special train at 12.30 o'clock.

They were escorted from Government House by a detachment of troops and dragoons, and a special guard of honor was drawn up at the depot. The streets through which the Royal party drove were lined with people, and their departure was in cheers. There was still a large crowd at the depot, and there were more enthusiastic cheers when the Duke and Duchess appeared.

The pilot special, carrying Premier Laurier and other Dominion officials, left thirty minutes ahead of the special bearing the Royal party.

The first stop of any length will be made at Winnipeg on Thursday afternoon.

Another Account.

(Special to the Times.)

Ottawa, Sept. 24.—Amid the booming of cannon and cheers of thousands of Ottawa's loading citizens the Royal train left here exactly at 12.30 to-day. Half an hour earlier the train in which Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Lady Minto and the Government House party, along with newspaper correspondents, started. Their Royal Highnesses were accompanied to the depot by a full mounted escort. At the station were ministers of the Crown, Ottawa's mayor, in his new robes which he got for the occasion; members of the reception committee and a very large gathering, who loudly cheered the Royal pair as they took their departure.

The Duke and Duchess stood on the rear platform of the car and bowed graciously to those who had assembled to say good-bye. Their stay here was most enjoyable.

KIDNAPPING A MISSIONARY.

Miss Stone Was Carried Away By Bulgarian Brigands.

(Associated Press.)

Washington, Sept. 24.—Bulgarian brigands instead of Turkish kidnapped Miss Ellen H. Stone, the American missionary, in Turkey, according to the last advices to the state department. Consul-General Dickinson at Constantinople has cabled the department that Bulgarian brigands caused the Turkish border and seized Miss Stone carried her back into Bulgaria and outside of the Sultan's dominions. The consul-general has been in communication with the brigands, who demand a ransom for the release of the prisoner, and he asks the state department whether the American board of foreign missions is willing to pay the ransom. The request has been transmitted to the mission board.

DISTINGUISHED VISITOR.

Marquis Ito Will Be Here During Reception to Duke and Duchess.

Marquis Ito, Premier of Japan, who, next to the Emperor, is probably the greatest man in the kingdom, will be expected to arrive in Victoria on or about the same day as the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York.

News to this effect was received by the local agent of the Nippon Yusen Kaisha steamship line, Chas. Warwick, in a dispatch from Seattle yesterday afternoon, stating that the distinguished statesman was coming on the steamer Tosa Maru due here on October 1st. The vessel left Yokohama on the 20th inst., and being one of the new liners of the N. Y. K. fleet can be expected to make good time. The marquis, the dispatch states, is accompanied by a party of five, but whether these include a number of his ministry is not stated. The fact that he will be in Victoria on the same date as the coming King of England is a remarkable coincidence, and one which will add much additional to the stay of the Royal party in this city.

He will be met in Victoria by the Japanese consuls of Seattle and Vancouver, but as the Associated Press dispatch stating his departure from Old Japan gave San Francisco as his point of debarkation, plans for his visit here have not as yet been formulated. The marquis has been in very poor health for months. The recent crisis in the cabinet, in which he occupied a position similar to that of Gladstone, was heavily upon him and, acting on the advice of his doctors, he is taking his present sea voyage.

The news that he is coming to this city will be a great surprise to the local Japanese.

DREDGING THE HARBOR.

Progress of Work Being Carried On—Mud Lark in Upper Harbor.

The Times has the authority of Geo. A. Keefer, Dominion government engineer for this province, that the new hydraulic dredge, building at the Westminster mill, will be ready for the work of filling in the James Bay mud flats before the end of August. Will in preparation for the undertaking has been completed by the city engineers. The dredge, he thinks will be completed by the end of this month. She will have a capacity of 1,000 yards per hour, but this will only obtain for a short time.

The Mud Lark dredge is now being operated in cleaning out the upper harbor, where the silt has lodged to such an extent that the sealing vessels have been put to much difficulty in reaching the wharf of the Victoria Sealing Association. The Mud Lark is taking out on an average of from five to six score loads of silt a day. At this rate it is being taken out into the Straits, it being of a kind unsuitable for use in connection with the filling of the flats. As far as the dredge is worked, the harbor will be deepened to a depth of 14 feet, the depth to be obtained where Tuna rock, or at least what is left of it, is now situated. About one hundred acres are fixed off this morning, a great portion of which was being hoisted ready for removal by the dredge. The dredge used in boring for rock to a distance of from 10 to 12 feet, so from 2 to 3 feet below the uniform depth of 14 feet at low tide has to be established. The platform from which the drill is manipulated covers a space of about 30 by 50 feet, and is capable of carrying from 100 to 150 holes are bored, so that the distance between them is only about three feet. They are bored close together in order to obtain as many pieces of rock

CHARGES DISMISSED.

Longshoremen Released by the Court—Larry Mooney Gets Six Months.

The three young incorrigibles, Ernest Judd, Peter Hansen and Wm. Aitken-on, were before the magistrate this morning, the charge in this instance being the stealing of a case of saw fittings off the C. P. N. wharf. They were apprehended by Officer Handley, and this morning the magistrate remanded the consideration of their cases until Thursday at 9 o'clock.

Three drunks were disposed of. Two of them were first offenders, and, pleading guilty, were promptly fined $2.50. The other was a second offender, and paid proportionately, being fined $5.

Larry Mooney was again in the box, and the magistrate expressed great surprise on hearing that he had been out of jail for ten days. His offence on the present occasion was the theft of two pieces of cloth valued at $12 from Hing Kee. He went down for six months.

The charges against two members of the Longshoremen's Union, which were down for hearing this morning, drew no interested group of curious men. Jim Powell appeared for the crown and asked for a remand until the afternoon, which was granted. F. B. Gregory is defending.

This afternoon the charges against W. J. Kelly and J. Yorke, members of the Longshoremen's Union, for hindering Peter Alexander from discharging cargo from the ship Red Rock, came up in the police court before Magistrate Hall. They were dismissed, however, on account of the lack of evidence to substantiate the charges made. The two men were immediately released.

FIRE FIGHTING IN MANILA.

Interesting Information in a Letter From the Chief There.

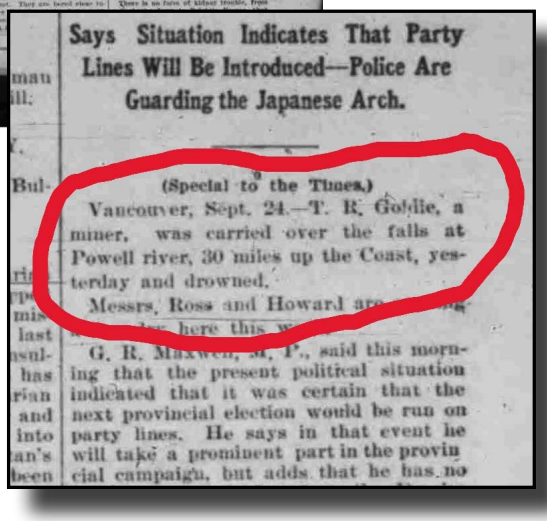

Chief Watson, of the fire department, is in receipt of a very interesting communication from Chief F. B. Dodge, of the Manila fire department, giving full particulars of both kind of the department at the time of the American occupation, and found all the apparatus second-hand, being left over from the Spanish occupation. This was drawn by native ponies. The department consists of 72 Filipinos. The water supply is drawn from the river, there is the water works but no fire mains. The city contains a population of 300,000 inhabitants, of whom 22,000 are Chinese and Filipinos, the remainder being Americans, English, Spanish, French, Germans and other Europeans. The horses are mostly of ten stamp, the upper of frame and the lower of straw. Fees are higher, owing to the scarcity of everything else.

On Sept. 1st, the city was routed into a municipality, and the work of reorganization, including that of the fire department, has been undertaken. Improvements are being made to the water supply, five stations and two cisterns being constructed, and new apparatus ordered.

The writer asks the co-operation of Chief Watson, and solicits information regarding the system in vogue here.

CHINA IS REGRETFUL

Envoy Na Tung Is Received at Yokohama.

YOKOHAMA, Sept. 21.—H. E. Na Tung, Chinese Envoy of Apology, appeared in the Imperial Palace in a carriage specially sent by the Household Department. On arrival at the palace he was met by Mr. Sone, Acting Minister for Foreign Affairs, and Baron Sannomiya, Grand Master of Ceremonies, and was led into the Phoenix Hall where the Chinese Envoy was received in audience by the Emperor. Envoy Na Tung delivered to His Majesty a letter of apology sent by the Emperor of China, which is published below. The suite of the mission was also admitted to audience at the same time. Afterwards the Chinese mission was entertained to dinner in the palace. The following official translations of the Envoy's representation, the letter from the Emperor of China, and the reply of the Emperor of Japan are taken from the Japan Times:

SPEECH OF THE ENVOY.

Your imperial majesty in graciously permitting me to approach your majesty in the discharge of a mission entitled to me by his majesty the Emperor of China, my august sovereign, has conferred upon me a high honor which I esteem all the more because of my personal knowledge of the magnificent results of your majesty's enlightened rule, which are becoming more and more conspicuous day by day.

The reciprocal relations between Japan and China, situated alike in Asia, have been marked by the utmost cordiality. Unfortunately, however, when a disturbance suddenly broke out in China in the summer of last year, Sugiyama Akira, the chancellor of your majesty's legation, met a violent death. My august sovereign deeply regretting the occurrence, has sent me to your majesty's court in the capacity of his special envoy to present this letter, and has charged me to convey to your majesty an expression of his profound grief. At the same time I have been commanded by his majesty the Emperor to exceed honorable reparation to the memory of Sugiyama Akira by performing religious ceremonies before his tomb and by transmitting to the proper recipient an offering from my imperial master.

It only remains for me to express the hope, in the interest of the two empires, that your majesty, favorably moved by the sense of geographical propinquity, may be pleased to foster the relations of good friendship which unite the two countries, and to promote the common welfare of Eastern Asia through an undisturbed maintenance of the general situation.

In conclusion I have the honor to present to your majesty my humble wishes for your majesty's health and the prosperity of the empire of Japan.

FROM THE EMPEROR OF CHINA.

The Emperor of China to His Majesty the Emperor of Japan, Greeting:

Great and Illustrious Sovereign—The relations of mutual confidence and cordial friendship between China and Japan—the countries situated alike in Asia in close geographical proximity to each other—have happily been fostered and strengthened ever since the practice was inaugurated of sending envoys from one empire to the other in permanent resident missions. Unfortunately, however, when the capital of our country was suddenly infested by the Boxer insurgents in the fifth moon of last year, and in consequence, when both the sekiho of the legation quarter have themselves up to uncontrolled fury and disorder, Sugiyama Akira, the chancellor of your majesty's legation in Peking, fell a victim to their lawlessness and lost his life. Your chancellor coming to China, as he did, in the suite of our imperial minister, was entitled to the highest protection from us. The disturbance shall not be broke out so suddenly and unexpectedly that his grievous death could not be averted. We are conscious that this irreparable deplorable end, which befell the officials of a friendly power, and the consequent interruption of cordial relations between the two countries are the result of our failings, in that we were unable to prevent in time the critical turn of events. We therefore feet the deepest regret, and we have accordingly ordered our minister to perform religious rites for the memory of the lamented chancellor, and at the same time we have made offerings from our private purse in honor of the deceased.

We have commanded Na Tung, a vice minister for Sanbu of the first degree of rank (Ts'ou p'in ting tai), to proceed to your majesty's empire and to present this imperial letter in the capacity of Ambassy Extraordinary mission. The loyalty and fidelity of Na Tung are already known to us, and reposing full confidence in him we have specially charged him to execute his mission in the spirit of highest respect and reverence, and to make known our feelings of hatred already given, thus making honorable reparation for the death of Sugiyama.

When the forces which were sent by your majesty on their distant expedition arrived in Pekin, your majesty's paramount aim was to give peace and security to the inhabitants. In the negotiations for peace which followed, your majesty's beneficent influence was invariably felt in the adjustment of important questions. That the general situation in the Orient has been so happily preserved intact, is due to the tact and impartial care shown by your majesty has maintained in the councils of nations. Your majesty's fame as a just and humane sovereign now extends far and wide, and deeply touched by your majesty's benevolent attitude, we have commanded our envoy to present to your majesty our sincere thanks. It only remains for us to express our earnest wish that your majesty's setting aside the importance which past events have abandoned will be graciously disposed to draw closer the bond of friendship which unites the two countries, that the existing sentiments of mutual good will may be fostered more and more as time progresses; that tranquillity may henceforth reign over the earth, and that the blessings of peace and prosperity may descend upon our respective peoples.

The twentieth day of the sixth moon of the twenty-seventh year of Kwang Hsu.

Seal of the Emperor.

THE REPLY OF THE EMPEROR.

In the disturbance which occurred in Peking last year, Sugiyama Akira, the chancellor of our legation, was made the victim of a cruel assassination, perpetrated by the soldiers of your country.

His majesty the Emperor of China, feeling profound regret at the incident, has been pleased to send you to our court on a special mission, with a letter in acknowledgment of the reparation which is due to us. In accepting the message which you have been charged to deliver to us it behooves us to express our belief that the friendly relations between the two countries will in the future become closer and closer. It is our earnest wish that the great work of reform, which depends on your sovereign, will soon be found effective in progress, and that the maintenance of permanent peace in Eastern Asia be thereby secured. In submitting to your majesty the result of your mission you will not fail to state that we pray for his unbounded happiness and prosperity.

SCHROEDER DID RIGHT AT GUAM

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—A special to the Sun from Washington says: Commander Seaton Schroeder, governor of Guam, today filed with the Navy Department a report on conditions in Guam which led to his actions directly in defiance of the command "to the hoodlumism and lawlessness which are rampant in it."

That the Navy Department is satisfied with the explanation of Schroeder, or the cause for his strenuous orders, is shown by the fact that he was this afternoon directed to return to the island and continue his work there. He will leave here Thursday for San Francisco, and sail from there to Yokohama, where he will be met by the gunboat Yorktown, which has been ordered to take him and his family to Asana, the capital of Guam.

In his report Schroeder reviews in detail the lawlessness on the island which occasioned his action. Conditions were very satisfactory, he says, until it became evident that the marines comprising the command there, were misbehaving themselves in a great many ways. They spent much time in the town, gradually abused their privileges and caused trouble by assaulting natives on the streets. Finally it became so bad that women were not safe upon the streets. Eighty men deserted their quarters, and a barrel of whisky also disappeared. With this in their possession, the men marched off, buying provisions along the way as they needed them. It was then that Schroeder issued his order, calling upon the command in general to vindicate the stigma placed upon it by the action of some of their comrades. Just before Schroeder left Guam, while the matter was being cleared up, many men concerned in the lawlessness had been court-martialed, convicted and punished.

AMERICAN GIRL ANGRY AT A KING

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—A cable to the World from Madrid says: King Alfonso recently aroused the ire of Miss Colford, a pretty American girl, at San Sebastian by repeatedly taking snap shots at her while on the beach.

Miss Colford, who is well known in New York society, was promenading on the beach with her aged French maid, and the youthful monarch was also taking a morning walk, accompanied by Colonel Loraja, his military instructor. At once Alfonso carried his camera, and every time he passed the pretty American girl he took a snap shot at her. When Miss Colford discovered what the king was doing she became intensely angry, and rushed up to Alfonso just as he was preparing to take another picture, seized his camera and threw it upon the ground, exclaiming: "How dare you!"

Loraja picked up the kodak and placed himself between the king and the excited girl, saying in English: "Madame, this is the King of Spain."

"It makes no difference who he is," retorted Miss Colford, angrily. "This is the seventh time he has photographed me. I call that gross, insulting insistence. They do it in Chinatown in New York."

"Tell her we thought her remarkably pretty," put in the King, "that's our excuse. Beg her pardon, and say that after that the pictures shall not be developed." The royal boy then turned his back on Miss Colford and walked away.

ONLY RUMORS.

No Definite News Has Been Received Regarding the Captive Missionary.

(Associated Press.)

New York, Dec. 6.—Rev. Dr. Rosse, the superintendent of the American mission at Kaloniki, replying to the World's telegram asking his opinion regarding the situation so far as Miss Stone is concerned, wired as follows:

"I hope Miss Stone is living, though her reported death causes anxiety. However, seemingly the report did not come from eye-witnesses, and needs verification. Miss Stone was feared to backslide, or from faith, and not one to die of grief."

Mr. Haskell also telegraphs from Samakov: "There is apparently well founded rumor that both captives were alive and well on November 25th in a secret sheltered place, where they were likely to remain for weeks. Our messengers have not returned."

Both Well.

Washington, Dec. 6.—Secretary Hay received a cable-gram to-day from Mr. S. A. Eddy, charge d'affaires at Constantinople, dated Pera, near Constantinople, December 5th, saying that he had just learned from Salonica that the agent whom he had sent out has returned and reports both Miss Stone and Mme. Tsilka alive and well.

REVISED BIBLE.

Committee Engaged in Work Will Complete By Task To-morrow.

(Associated Press.)

New York, Dec. 6.—A new edition of the Bible, authorized by the late general convention in San Francisco to be read in all Episcopal churches in the United States, has been in process of compilation by the committee on marginal readings which has sat at the Episcopal general seminary in this city since last Tuesday, and will conclude its work to-morrow, says the Times. It was stated that an English firm has promised to undertake the publishing of the Bible without expense to the committee.

The new Bible is to consist of the text and renderings of the King James version, the renderings of the English revision, and the renderings of the recent American revisions. The renderings of the Episcopal committee are ordered to be printed in an appendix for presentation. The late revisions, while it praised the scholarship of its own commission, did not place their work upon the same level as that of revisers who had included by scholars and who had spent many years at the work, besides being far larger in number. The new Bible inserts the very latest renderings, although the reading of them is permissive only, not obligatory.

STORY OF TROUBLE DENIED.

Reported Quarrels Between Queen and Her Husband Said to Be Without Foundation.

(Associated Press.)

New York, Dec. 6.—The Paris correspondent of the Times quotes a dispatch from The Hague correspondent of Le Temps in regard to the report that serious quarrel between Queen Wilhelmina and her husband, Prince Henry of the Netherlands. The Temps vouches for the correspondent as a contributor who has the reputation of sending accurate information. The correspondent says the malicious rumors in regard to the Queen and Prince Henry are the fabrications of cheap society papers in Holland. He adds:

"It is a most happy thing that there is no domestic strife. The Prince is kind and affectionate, the Queen loves her husband and harmony has always prevailed."

TOBACCO COMBINE.

Hotchkisites Interested in Combination of Philippine Growers.

(Associated Press.)

London, Dec. 6.—The editor of the Financier re-asserted this morning the correctness of the reports regarding the organization of a combination of the tobacco growers in the Philippines, particularly on December 4th in the Financier, adding that he was sure the project would go through and that he had positive information the Rothschilds were interested in it. He also gave a representative of the Associated Press the following signed statement:

"Office of the Financier and Bullionist, Wool Exchange, London: We have given no denials of any published statement regarding a Philippine tobacco combine. (Signed) Editor of the Financier and Bullionist."

CHAMPION OF ENGLAND.

Frank Dymoke Demands Restoration of the Hereditary.

(Associated Press.)

New York, Dec. 6.—Frank Dymoke, hereditary champion of England, has demanded the restoration of the hereditary before the court of claims, instituted to settle the right of presence at the coronation of King Edward VII., says the London correspondent of the Journal and Advertiser. The court held that it had no jurisdiction in the question. Dymoke claims the right to appear as champion at the ceremony. If it is upheld he will be a unique figure, clad in full armour in the style of the reign of Richard II. The title has been held by Dymokes since the reign of that monarch.

UNPAID SOLDIERS.

Turkish Troops Gathered in Vicinity of the Porte and Demanded Their Pay.

(Associated Press.)

New York, Dec. 6.—The Constantinople correspondent of the Times says the garrison at Mecca, which has not been paid for a long while, has mutinied. As a result, pay for the troops there now was sent from Constantinople. On Wednesday in the precincts of the Porte, soldiers gathered weeping, shrieking and demanding their pay. The Grand Vizier dispersed them by telling them they would forfeit their pensions if they did not cease their clamor.

CONVICT'S BRAVADO.

Took Refuge on Roof of Prison and for Thirty Hours Refused to Surrender.

(Associated Press.)

London, Dec. 6.—A convict at the Pentonville prison, who managed to escape his warders, has established a sort of Fort Chamberlain on the roof of the institution, and for the last 30 hours has defied all attempts to dislodge him. Thousands of spectators are watching the show and aiding the prisoner by timely warnings of the movements of the would-be captors. Large ladders placed against the wall are promptly thrown by the occupant of the roof, whose reckless movements and wild laughter at the futile efforts of the warders are the thought to indicate insanity. The fugitive has collected a large pile of debris, which he gleefully throws at the heads of the officials who attempt to scale the wall by means of ladders until they are forced to retreat. At noon he was still holding the officials at bay.

Loved By Roast Beef.

London, Dec. 6.—The convict eventually was starved into submission. He surrendered this afternoon, after defeating all attempts to dislodge him by force. He was finally lured to the ground by the offer of a dish of roast beef and potatoes.

TWO MEN KILLED NEAR LYTTON THIS MORNING

Engine Struck a Rock and Went Down Embankment—Trapper Missing at Powell Lake.

(Special to the Times.)

Vancouver, Dec. 6.—A freight locomotive struck a rock slide this side of Lytton this morning. The locomotive slid down the embankment. Engineer Randell and Fireman Potruff, of Kamloops, were uninjured. To-day's express is delayed in consequence.

R. McEwen, trapper, is missing at Powell lake. His canoe was found adrift, and the owner is supposed to have been drowned.

Sayward's and Joliffe's lumber camps closed down on account of bad weather. A scow load of shingle bolts has been washed ashore at Shoal bay and other damage done by Wednesday night's wind.

FATAL FALL FROM WEST BOUND TRAIN

FIREMAN'S BODY FOUND EAST OF FORT WILLIAM

The Late Rev. Dean O'Meara, of Winnipeg—Presentation to Departing Passenger Agent.

(Associated Press.)

Winnipeg, Dec. 6.—Some section men found the lifeless body of a man lying on the C. P. R. tracks east of Fort William. He was taken to that place and after several hours' inquiry as to his identity, it was learned that the man was P. Parkman, who was on his way to the Kootenay division of the C. P. R., where he was to go on the road as fireman. He had evidently fallen off the west bound train. Parkman's identity was learned through his wife, who was accompanying him. Deceased came from London, Ont.

Presentation to Mr. Stitt.

Wm. Stitt, for years assistant general passenger agent and chief clerk of the C. P. R., with headquarters here, received yesterday afternoon the felicitations of a large deputation of gentlemen, representing the wholesale interests of Winnipeg, on his promotion to the important position of agent of the Canadian Pacific railway in Australia, accompanied by regrets at his departure, and a token of regard in the shape of a handsome pocketbook, with a monogram in gold letters, containing the sum of $500. J. Whitla made the presentation in the presence of a deputation of wholesalers. Mr. Stitt leaves for Australia on Monday.

The Late Dean O'Meara.

Dean O'Meara, who died this morning of typhoid fever, was the Dean of the Diocese of Church of England in the West. His matchless eloquence and kindly disposition have endeared him to the hearts of all with whom he has come in contact. In the Ancient Order of Foresters and Accepted Masons he was one of the most enthusiastic members, and at one time had the grand mastership of the Northwest, and at the time of his death was the prelate of the Knights Templar of this order. The name of the deceased a short time ago was frequently mentioned in ecclesiastical circles as the new Bishop of Keewatin, a lately erected missionary diocese in the province of Rupert's Land. He leaves surviving him his widow and his only son, Fred O'Meara, the latter being wired to come here at once.

The Intercolonial.

Halifax, Dec. 6.—The board of trade at a meeting held yesterday unanimously passed a resolution favoring the transfer of the management of the Intercolonial railway to the C. P. R. A resolution was also passed memorializing boards of trade throughout the Dominion to ask the Dominion government to favor the same, provided such arrangements could be made with the latter company as would, while retaining government ownership of the road, promote local traffic and lead to the extensive development of Canada in export and import business through Canada's Atlantic ports.

Loss of Life.

Much damage has been done along the Nova Scotia coast by the severe gale on Wednesday night. Shipping has suffered severely, and some loss of life has been reported.

Toronto Mayoralty.

Toronto, Dec. 6.—Mayor Howland will likely be re-elected to the municipal chair in January by acclamation.

Ontario Legislature.

The Ontario legislature has been called to meet on January 8th, 1902.

TRAIN IN WAITING ROOM.

Jumped the Track and Wrecked Part of Station.

(Associated Press.)

Frankfort, Germany, Dec. 6.—A large part of the handsome railway station here was wrecked this morning by the orient express, the air brakes of which failed to work. The train dashed into the station at full speed, jumped the platform and came to a standstill in the middle of the waiting room, against the debris of a stone wall. A few of the passengers were badly bruised, but none fatally injured. The people about the station and in the waiting room had remarkable escapes.

PEACE REIGNS.

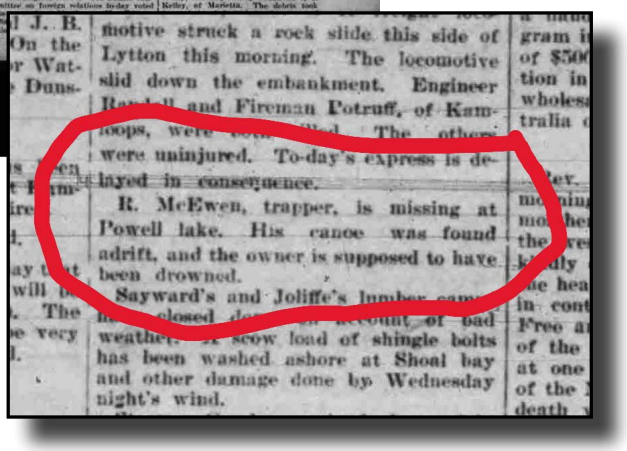

(Associated Press.)

London, Dec. 6.—A dispatch to the evening News from The Hague, published to-day, says: "Peace reigns again at the palace, and the happiest man in Holland is Major Van Tets, who was wounded in defence of Queen Wilhelmina by Prince Henry, or, as all Dutchmen now contemptuously call him, 'the German.'"

CONDUCTOR KILLED.
